Welcome and Announcements

Liturgist

Prelude

Choir Introit

Call to Worship-Responsive:

Liturgist

Liturgist: Though finite human minds cannot fathom God's fullness,

All: God gives us glimpses of her glory every day
in the night sky's depths and in the simplest flower,

Liturgist: in shared meals, shared stories, and shared struggles.

All: In the face of every person made in her image,
God's beauty glows like sunlight behind clouds.

Liturgist: We share God's sacred longing to be known,
to be truly seen and loved for all we are.

All: But to be fully known, we must risk vulnerability.

Liturgist: When we dare to share ourselves with one another,
when we work to understand a friend or stranger,

All: we come closer to catch a glimpse of God's presence.
Let us worship God together.

Opening Prayer:

Word made flesh, Eternal Mystery, on that mountain,
you came out to three of your closest friends:
a fabulous, though temporary,
transition into your authentic truth.
Transfigure our hearts and minds
until we can share this honor.
Pierce through our clouds of unknowing,
the presumptions and failures of imagination
that shroud our capacity to see the real you.
Inspire us to seek to know you better
through relationships with people of all faiths,
all cultures and experiences not our own,
so that we might see, and know, and love you fully as we are fully known and loved by you. Amen.

Congregation

* Call to Confession

Liturgist

Standing in the light of Christ,
we see the shadows hidden in our hearts.
Let us tell the truth about ourselves,
trusting in God's grace,
that we might receive mercy and be renewed.

* Prayer of Confession

Congregation

Magnificent God,
we cannot stand before the glory of your presence.
You shine with divine light, and we are overwhelmed by your goodness. Lift us in your mercy, release us from our fear, and fill us with your Spirit, that we might reflect your light and share your love, for the sake of Jesus, our Savior.

* Time of Silence for Personal Prayers of Confession

* Assurance of Pardon

Liturgist

Children of God,
hear the good news:
We are forgiven, again and again,
by this glorious God.
What a wonder! Alleluia!

Prayer for Illumination

God of shining splendor,
your voice makes the earth tremble in wonder.
Overshadow us with your Spirit
so that we may hear your Word and live as faithful disciples
and covenant people;
through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Transfiguration Sunday

First Scripture Reading:

Exodus 24:12-18

The Lord said to Moses, "Come up to me on the mountain. Stay here. I will give you the stone tablets. They contain the law and commandments I have written to teach the people."

Then Moses and Joshua, his helper, started out. Moses went up on the mountain of God. He said to the elders, "Wait for us here until we come back to you. Aaron and Hur are with you. Anyone who has a problem can go to them."

Moses went up on the mountain. Then the cloud covered it. The glory of the Lord settled on Mount Sinai. The cloud covered the mountain for six days. On the seventh day the Lord called out to Moses from inside the cloud. The people of Israel saw the glory of the Lord. It looked like a fire burning on top of the mountain. Moses entered the cloud as he went on up the mountain. He stayed on the mountain for 40 days and 40 nights.

Second Scripture Reading:

Psalms 2

Why do the nations plan evil together?

Why do they make useless plans?

The kings of the earth rise up against the Lord.

The rulers of the earth join together against his anointed king.

"Let us break free from their chains," they say.

"Let us throw off their ropes."

The God who sits on his throne in heaven laughs.

The Lord makes fun of those rulers and their plans.

When he is angry, he warns them.

When his anger blazes out, he terrifies them.

He says to them,

"I have placed my king on my holy mountain of Zion."

I will announce what the Lord has promised.

He said to me, "You are my son.

Today I have become your father.

Ask me, and I will give the nations to you.

All nations on earth will belong to you.

You will break them with an iron scepter.

You will smash them to pieces like clay pots."

Transfiguration Sunday

Kings, be wise!

Rulers of the earth, be warned!

Serve the Lord and have respect for him.

Celebrate his rule with trembling.

Obey the son completely, or he will be angry.

Your way of life will lead to your death.

His anger can blaze out at any moment.

Blessed are all those who go to him for safety.

This is the Word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

Special Music

Major Chords for Minors

Epistle Reading:

2 Peter 1:16-21

We told you about the time our Lord Jesus Christ came with power. But we didn't make up clever stories when we told you about it. With our own eyes we saw him in all his majesty. God the Father gave him honor and glory. The voice of the Majestic Glory came to him. It said, "This is my Son, and I love him. I am very pleased with him." (Matthew 17:5; Mark 9:7; Luke 9:35) We ourselves heard this voice that came from heaven. We were with him on the sacred mountain.

We also have the message of the prophets. This message can be trusted completely. You must pay attention to it. The message is like a light shining in a dark place. It will shine until the day Jesus comes. Then the Morning Star will rise in your hearts. Above all, here is what you must understand. No prophecy in Scripture ever came from a prophet's own understanding of things. Prophecy never came simply because a prophet wanted it to. Instead, the Holy Spirit guided the prophets as they spoke. So, although prophets are human, prophecy comes from God.

Gospel Reading:

Matthew 17:1-9

After six days Jesus took Peter, James, and John the brother of James with him. He led them up a high mountain. They were all alone. There in front of them his appearance was changed. His face shone like the sun. His clothes became as white as the light. Just then Moses and Elijah appeared in front of them. Moses and Elijah were talking with Jesus.

Peter said to Jesus, "Lord, it is good for us to be here. If you wish, I will put up three shelters. One will be for you, one for Moses, and one for Elijah."

While Peter was still speaking, a bright cloud covered them. A voice from the cloud said, "This is my Son, and I love him. I am very pleased with him. Listen to him!"

Transfiguration Sunday

When the disciples heard this, they were terrified. They fell with their faces to the ground. But Jesus came and touched them. "Get up," he said. "Don't be afraid." When they looked up, they saw no one except Jesus.

They came down the mountain. On the way down, Jesus told them what to do. "Don't tell anyone what you have seen," he said. "Wait until the Son of Man has been raised from the dead."

This is the word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

Some version of the Transfiguration (Matthew 17:1–9/Mark 9:2–9/Luke 9:28–36) is always read on the last Sunday after the Epiphany. In this text that foretaste of Christ's glorification helps to prepare Peter, James, and John for their roles as proclaimers of "God's beloved Son."

Addressing the first two stanzas to the singers of the hymn and the last three to God, this free paraphrase of Psalm 104 recasts the psalmist's imagery with baroque verve. Though it was first published in England, the tune has been more popular in North America than there.

The opening line of this hymn was inspired by the three divine attributes listed in 1 Timothy 1:17 (King James Version), and it continues by considering how God's life exceeds our own finite existence. The text is well set to a Welsh melody shaped by many three-note units.

with wis - dom, power, and love; our God is an awe-some God!

This is a contemporary worship song that first gained recognition on Christian radio and later became a popular congregational song. "Awesome" here is not a trivial expression but carries the meaning of "awe-inspiring" and is based on Scripture (e.g. Daniel 9:4).
